

Inclusive Music making Conference

21st June 2017 from

10am–4.30pm

Salisbury Arts Centre

FREE

Inclusive and supportive music education and opportunities

This conference will support music leaders, teachers and organisations who are working with children and young people to develop outstanding practice, knowledge and skills to work more effectively across the sector.

10.00am -10.30am	Registration and refreshments
10.30am -11.00am	Introductions and Welcomes Good Practice Guide for Wiltshire - The beginning Jonathan Westrup and Beckie Wright (SEND Advocates)
11.00am -11.45pm	“How I work inclusively “ Example projects and approaches from Associate music leaders in Wiltshire
11.45am-12.45pm	Matt Hemson - The priority of Wellbeing Therapeutic Music Interventions for Children and Young People
12.45pm-1.20pm	LUNCH
1.20pm-2.00pm	“How I work inclusively” Example projects and approaches from Associate music leaders in Wiltshire
2.00pm-2.30pm	Some practical tips to support the dyslexic music learner Louise Stewart
2.30pm-2.45pm	BREAK
2.45pm-4.00pm	Enabling music for the physically disabled OHMI Trust- Rachel Wolffsohn
4.00pm-4.30pm	Summary and action plans

Please book NOW at this link – you’re welcome to come along to individual sessions if you can’t make the whole (or half) day.

<https://tinyurl.com/sendwiltshire>