

Support for young people's interest in the Music Industry

The Music Industry is an area of the UK economy which is growing all the time and is worth £4.4 billion. The Creative Industries (of which Music is a part) currently employ 1 in every 11 people!

The resources and events in this leaflet support National Careers Week

Information about Careers in the Music Industry

Starting with our Careers in the Music Industry handout, there is a range of information available through our website here where we provide links through to information from a range of national organisations including the Musicians Union and UK Music. Some of this information spills over into the wider Creative Industries.

Routes into Live Music

TROWBRIDGE

Starting on Saturday 19 February 2022 for 6 weeks, Trowbridge Town Hall ran "Routes into Live Music" a FREE programme giving young people between the ages of 16-18 the opportunity to develop an in-depth understanding of the possible routes into a career in live music.

Covering a wide spectrum of the industry – including audio conception, creation and capture to digital and analogue recording practices, microphone and mixing techniques, mastering, marketing, promotion, programming and much more – young people will gain valuable insights from industry professionals on how to thrive in today's landscapes.

Encouraging collaboration with other pathways into the industry, each participant will get the opportunity to work alongside peers as well as learning from specialists.

You can now listen to various podcasts from the sessions here

The Careers Behind The Music

7 - 9 March 2022

To celebrate National Careers Week 2022, Music Workshop is proud to present an inspiring series of industry events for young people in Wiltshire.

With professional industry presentations, personal experiences, and insightful creative discussions from local music industry professionals; these events will reveal the variety of career pathways and potential opportunities available to the young people of Wiltshire.

Music Workshop has enlisted a diverse array of music industry professionals and practitioners to motivate and inspire, including Radio Producers, Record Label Managers, Sound Engineers, Technicians, Tutors & Lecturers. There's an entire world of musical career opportunities out there that go far beyond traditional musicianship!

The events will be hosted at the historic Trowbridge Town Hall. With a focus on improving accessibility and encouraging diversity, those unable to travel will be able to access The Careers Behind The Music content online after the events.

Suitable For Ages 11 - 18.
